

Only the choicest roots of young ginger plants are used in Clicquot Club Ginger Ale

IT'S expensive, but it makes better ginger ale. We never use old, stale, peppery roots.

Ginger Ale

We use the best confectioner's sugar, too, and the best pure fruit flavors. That's why people note the delicious difference between Clicquot Club and other ginger ales.

JUDGE THAYER WILL ERECT BUILDING

Adds to His Purchase on Franklin Square by Buying the Shields Property—Not Fully Determined as to the Details of Structure—Had Hoped to Have Building Well Underway by This Time.

A real estate deal of much importance, inasmuch as it concerns a plot of ground on Franklin square, and considered one of the best corners in the city, was put through on Thursday, when the papers were passed transferring to Judge John M. Thayer the land and buildings at the corner of Franklin and Bath streets, from William H. Shields.

Judge Thayer in March bought the Cheshbrough property, just to the south of the Shields property, and on Thursday stated that it was his intention to have his new building on that property well under way by this time, but the proposition of securing the Shield property, adjoining, came up, and delayed matters. Judge Thayer stated that it was his opinion, as well as that of Mr. Shields, who had also announced that he intended to build, that the new structures should be along similar lines. This resulted in a proposition that Judge Thayer purchase Mr. Shields' corner and for a number of weeks this has been under way.

The property purchased Thursday comprises 6,121 square feet, including the low two-story building on the corner and the two-story dwelling on Bath street, while in addition a strip of land in the rear of the Cheshbrough property twelve feet deep was secured. This gives a frontage on Franklin street of 106 feet, on Bath street of 86 feet and a greater depth on the south end of the Cheshbrough property, so that the entire building now has about 10,476 square feet. W. F. Hill made the sale.

Judge Thayer stated that he had not had his plans or specifications made as yet, but he intends to cover the entire property with a building which will be a credit to the city and the square. How high it will be built he is unable to state at present or tell how it will be laid out.

Judge Thayer states that he does not intend to allow the property to stand idle long and work will be commenced at once on the plans and specifications. It is probable that the buildings now on the land will soon be razed, as they are unoccupied and have been vacant for over a month. The removal of these buildings will mark the passing of the old type of low buildings characteristic of many years ago and some of the early structures of the city.

HELPING HANDS' WHIST.

Entertained by Mrs. A. P. Blinn at Her Home on Oak Street.

On Thursday evening, with Mrs. A. P. Blinn as hostess at her home on Oak street, the Helping Hands' whist of the Spiritualist academy had one of its largest gatherings of the season, eleven tables playing. Those to take the prizes were the following: First—Mrs. E. R. Tuttle, a chocolate nut; Mrs. J. J. C. Stobe, a hand painted cake plate; consolation—Mrs. G. A. Bohn, a fan; and W. R. Balcom, a box of cigars.

Refreshments were served. The evening was so pleasantly passed that a decision was reached to continue the whists, although it had been thought that this might end the season, but another was announced for next week with Mrs. Burdick at Baltic.

WEDDING.

Bodenwein-Winfield.

In the presence of immediate relatives and friends, Mrs. Edna Winfield of Trenton and Theodore Bodenwein of New London were joined in marriage Wednesday evening, May 24, by Rev. C. H. Elder of the Trinity M. E. church, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Cora Mitchell, Trenton, N. J. Miss Edna Mitchell, niece of the bride, was maid of honor. The groom was unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Bodenwein left for New York after the ceremony and will sail Saturday on a two months' European trip.

Deer in City.

Thursday morning a deer was seen to swim across the Yantic river to the Grand View sanitarium grounds and then go through a number of yards to Washington street, and finally go into the woods in Mohegan park. It appeared very tame and was watched by many.

STATE CONVENTION

WOMEN WORKERS

her former home, ought to be proud of her, as Waterbury, her adopted home, was now.

The reading of the minutes of the last meeting was omitted and the report of the treasurer, Miss E. R. Eastman, New Britain, was given. This was accepted, showing receipts of $138.80, disbursements of $165.91, balance $22.89. The financial statement of the vacation house was also given and accepted, showing total receipts of $12,234, expenditures of $1,684.12, balance of $14,548.22.

A motion passed by a rising vote was offered by Miss Ward of Waterbury, expressing regret at the absence through illness of Miss K. Maud Smith, who has been acting president in the past year.

Club reports from the club secretaries were next in order and were read as follows: Women's Industrial club, Derby, Miss Maizie Brannon; Violet club, New Haven, Miss Mabel Kane, secretary pro tem; Alpha club, New Haven, Miss Margaret Creagan; Naugatuck Working Girls' club, Miss Celia Ann; Halle club, Norwich, Miss Beatrice Edmondson; New Britain Working Girls' club, Miss Anna Webster; Waterbury Institute of Craft and Industry, Inc., Miss Ethel Seachard.

Activity Among Clubs.

This also showed a high degree of interest and a year full of activity among the clubs. Classes in a large variety of subjects had been conducted, the social life had been promoted by entertainments, plays and visits to other clubs, income had been provided through successful sales, and a number spoils of visits made their clubs by the national secretary, Miss Ben Hamilton. The work had broadened in all the fields. The Halle club was the only one to report the organization of an athletic association.

The reading of the reports concluded the business of the afternoon and adjournment was taken after announcement had been made by Miss Benjamin, the Halle club directress, that there would be a trolley ride to Yantic on a special car at 5.45 and that the delegates were to have their pictures taken on the Town hall steps after the trolley ride.

After the afternoon business session was over the delegates were marshalled down to Franklin square, where they took a special trolley at 4.45 to Yantic and returned. On this trip they were accompanied by Miss Benjamin, the directress, Miss Mary E. Sheridan, the president of the Halle club, and various members of the committees. On returning from the trolley trip the party of delegates and local members, over 40 in number, had their pictures taken in a group on the Town hall steps by Photographer Laighton.

Officers Elected.

At 5 o'clock at the Halle club rooms a meeting of the directors was held, at which the nominating committee made its report and the following as proposed by them were elected officers for the year:

President, Miss K. Maud Smith; Naugatuck, vice president, Miss Greta Brown, New Britain; secretary, Miss Emeline Street, New Haven; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Beaudry, Derby.

Supper for Delegates.

Shortly after 6 o'clock the delegates were given supper at the club restaurant, about sixty enjoying the inviting menu served. The committee in charge consisted of Miss Agnes Kimball (chairman), Miss Carrie Parsons, Miss Nodde King, Miss Mary Keenan, Mrs. Anna Bodemann, Miss Catherine Kirby, Miss Elizabeth Ottman, Miss Catherine Corcoran, Miss Anna Schwartz, Miss Gordon, Miss Bertha Greenberger, Miss Gladys La Favour, Miss Vera Ward, Miss Beatrice Edmondson, Miss Elizabeth Hoar, Miss Jennie Harris.

For the evening session at Y. M. C. A. hall there was a good sized audience present when the convention was called to order by the newly elected vice president, Miss Greta Brown of New Britain. A cordial welcome to the gathering was expressed by Mrs. Langman, who urged upon the people of Norwich a greater interest in the club's work, speaking particularly of the recently formed athletic club, which is a branch where help will be appreciated now.

Madison Vacation House.

Her brief remarks were applauded vigorously and were followed by Miss Street in a report of the Madison vacation house, which she described as so delightful a spot for the summer vacations of club girls and also of non-club members that it was difficult to tell where to begin to tell of its attractions. It opened last year July 1st and closed on Labor day. The house commands a fine view of the Sound and is only a two minute walk from the beach, with a porch overlooking the water. Bathing, rowing, walks, picnics on the rocks, sailing parties, tableaux and games are included in the entertaining features. It is dehigned primarily for the use of club girls, but if there is room, others can be accommodated. She advised that all applications be in as early as possible, and recommended that if the girls wanted an ideal place to rest, they should go to Madison house.

One Act Farce.

Miss Street's report was followed by a one act farce, The Kieptomania, capably staged and cleverly given by the following well chosen cast, Miss Thresher being in charge:

Mrs. John Button, Miss Hadie Blackstone, Mrs. Valerie Chase Armsby, a widow, Miss Jean Jackson, Miss Evelyn Dixon, Miss Elsie Bogus, Mrs. Mabel Dovers, Miss Bessie Savage, Miss Freda Evans, a reporter, Miss Jennie Clifford, Mrs. Preston Ashley, Miss Catherine O'Neill, Katie, the maid, Miss Marguerite Thresher. There were a number of well rendered

ed selections by the Mandolin club, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Danby, and the following special dance numbers were gracefully given, the dancers having been instructed by the Holland brothers, James J. and Jeremiah P. Holland: Dutch wooden shoe dance and song, Miss Gladys Elliott and Miss Ruth Kind; holo dance, Miss Madeline Casey; sword dance, Miss Pauline Culver; serpentine dance, Miss Ruth Bogus. Each number was enthusiastically endorsed. The convention closed with a selection by the Mandolin club. The numbers at the evening session were: Misses Beatrice Edmondson, Linca Rydholm, Henrietta James, Mary Dunderdale, Amy Pollard, and Ida Siegrist. C. B. Messenger sold tickets and John Bowen was at the door.

AFTER 7 YEARS SUFFERING

I Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Waurika, Okla.—"I had female troubles for seven years, was all run down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different things but did me no good. I got so bad that I could not sleep day or night. While in this condition I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and began its use and began to feel better. In a short time I had gained my average weight and am now strong and well."

—Mrs. SALLIE STEVENS, R. F. D. No. 3, Box 31, Waurika, Okla.

Another Grateful Woman.
Huntington, Mass.—"I was in a nervous, run down condition and for three years could find no help."

"I owe my present good health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier which I believe saved my life."

"My doctor knows what helped me and does not say one word against it."

—Mrs. MARI JANETTE BATES, Box 134, Huntington, Mass.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, and nervous prostration.
